

OPERATION 4-H: JOINT FORCES AT THE FALLS

National 4-H Headquarters, U.S. Department of Agriculture, U.S. Army Child and Youth Services (CYS), U.S. Air Force Family Member Programs (FMP), The University of Georgia College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences and College of Family and Consumer Sciences continue their collaboration to support 4-H clubs and programs for military youth and families. County 4-H staff have established 4-H clubs on military installations and are involving military youth in all of their activities and programs.

Operation 4-H: Joint Forces at the Falls

100 youth with a family member deployed from around Georgia will join together at Wahsega 4-H Center for a fun-filled week of camp. The overall theme for the week will be an introduction to Georgia 4-H and to better communicate around issues of deployment. Each young person will have the opportunity to take part in early morning PT (physical training). This camp is open to military youth ages 11 through 13 and the cost for the week of camp is $25.00.
